1. [redacted] Talked to Miss Elizabeth Peacock, on the staff of Representative Leonor K. Sullivan (D., Mo.), concerning Representative Sullivan's inquiry of 16 July concerning "CIA checking on [redacted] loyalty." Advised Miss Peacock that the Agency is not involved in loyalty checks on aliens. Also advised that the Department of Army would be the appropriate agency if Representative Sullivan desired to make further inquiry into the matter. Miss Peacock stated her appreciation for the assistance provided in this case and advised that no written response to Representative Sullivan's letter would be necessary.

2. [redacted] Talked to [redacted] General Counsel, NSA, and brought him up-to-date on the Director's appearance before the Ervin Subcommittee on S. 782. [redacted] noted that he had been in contact with Mr. Bray, House Post Office and Civil Service Committee staff, during the week and that there appears to be no change in the situation in that Committee.

3. [redacted] Received a call from [redacted] General Counsel, NSA, who advised that Chairman James Hanley, House Post Office and Civil Service Subcommittee on Position Classification, had forwarded a letter to General Carter advising that he is introducing legislation to bring all agencies of the Government under a single position classification system and is soliciting NSA's comments. [redacted] was interested in whether the Agency had received a similar letter. After checking I advised that so far no such letter had been received.

4. [redacted] Received a call from Mr. Dan Perry, Legislative Analyst, Bureau of the Budget, concerning the Agency's
